We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, creative and committed primary school Islamic Curriculum teacher with a good knowledge of the school's Islamic curriculum. The Al-Falah Primary School is an exciting and welcoming Independent (Muslim) primary school with very well-behaved pupils engaged in learning. We offer a strong commitment to the development of all staff. This is an excellent opportunity to join a 'GOOD' school rated by Ofsted that is committed to continual improvement, and where you can be part of a winning team. You can become part of our journey towards achieving 'outstanding' in the near future.

We are looking for candidates who:

- Are passionate about their teaching and committed to achieving high standards
- Demonstrate excellent classroom practice
- Provide evidence of excellent and creative teaching
- Able to build good relationships with children, staff, and parents
- Create a vibrant classroom environment
- Understand and promote the safeguarding of the children

We can offer you:

- Very well-behaved children who have strong engagement in their learning
- A friendly and collaborative team
- Supportive colleagues
- Diverse opportunities for continued professional development

The Al-Falah School is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check and references will be requested for the successful candidate in accordance with Safeguarding Children and Safer Recruitment in Education legislation. For further information or an application pack, please contact the school office. Visits to the school are very welcome and recommended. Please do come and meet us and see if the Al-Falah is the opportunity you have been looking for.

Working Hours: 12:15 pm to 3:50 pm

Qualification: A Graduate from any UK reputable Institute and experience in teaching.
